

SERVANT GIRL HAS REAL CLUB HOUSE NOW, ALL HER OWN

Beautiful Four-Story Brown-stone Structure to Give Her Social Life.

They should worry.

Why? These persons of affluence who have to feed, lodge and pay real money in large ways to women servants.

Maids, governesses, housekeepers and there may be needing more wages than ever now, for they have a new clubhouse all their own at No. 20 East Seventy-second street, a real club where they may enjoy the comforts of home, may entertain their friends at tea or under the eyes of a proper chaperone receive their sweethearts.

"It is called the Home Club and was established recently in Lexington avenue by Mrs. Ransom S. Hooker, formerly Miss Mildred Phelps Stokes. It was moved into Seventy-second street for convenience and better surroundings.

NO PLACE FOR GIRLS WHO DANCE ALL NIGHT.

The club is a four-story brownstone house with rooms and closets for about sixteen girls. The dining room and parlors will accommodate many more, as a large part of the membership will use it only for occasional meals and evening entertainments. It is intended mainly for maids out of employment who have just arrived or are making a change of service. There is a place for them to store their trunks while they are looking for situations.

Mrs. E. B. Hall is resident mother. References are required and girls who are unwilling to conform to rules will be asked to leave. The rules require the closing of the club at 10:30 P. M. and all lights must be out at 11. Each girl pays a fee of $5 a year—$1 a month if she wants to pay the five installments that way.

There are now fifty on the rolls, including English maids, French governesses, housekeepers, cooks, housekeepers and general domestic.

"It is no place for a girl who wants to be out to dances until 4 in the morning," said Mrs. Hall. "If a girl is out at a theatre I stay up and let her in. Nobody has a key except me."

MATRON MUST KNOW THE "GENTLEMEN FRIENDS."

"Yes, they may receive their 'gentlemen friends' here after the 'gentleman friend' has been presented to me. But I won't have any man here that a girl is afraid or ashamed to introduce to me. A girl may have as many guests as she likes free except at entertainments, when a small admission is charged."

Women may join for their maids. If the maid leaves her employment, her successor gets the membership in one month. When the roll is complete the club will be self-supporting. The meals are at reasonable prices. A breakfast of cereal, toast and coffee costs ten cents; with bacon or an egg, fifteen cents. Afternoon tea is ten cents, and supper, which includes cold meat, bread and butter, is two cents. The charge for one night's lodging to members is thirty-five cents and to non-members fifty cents.

In the winter musical entertainments, dancing and other amusements will be arranged for the maids. The committee in charge of the club is composed of Mrs. Oswald Villard, Mrs. Frederick Van Buren Jr., Mrs. Henry Patterson, Mrs. George Draper and Miss Emily Cross.

Undertaker's Job Called Off.
When William Hulley of Somerville, was called on a concrete sidewalk several days ago and fractured his skull physicians declared he would live but a few hours. His relatives were summoned and even the undertaker was hired. But since then Hulley has shown wonderful vitality and is apparently growing stronger.

EAT NEW BREAD, CABBAGE, SAUSAGE AND DIGEST IT. "PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN"

No indigestion, no sour, gassy stomach or dyspepsia. Try it!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, get this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered, you get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eruptions of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Put an end to stomach trouble by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

We distinctly caution the Public that any other announcement concerning the Sale of Forsythe Stock is absolutely false and fraudulent.

Many Women Wear Light Weight Suits the Year Round

If You Are One of Them You Will Be Interested in the 175 Such Suits to Be Sold Tomorrow at Half of Today's Prices

We offer them at half price because there are only one or two of a kind, and some need freshening touches.

They are mainly copies of French models, so they all are in accordance with present fashions.

A number are of rich silks, especially suited to wearing in the house during the winter.

Some are of conservative worsteds in dark colors which can be worn with furs far into the season.

Combination suits and others of lighter checks and stripes are well adapted for travelers going South.

The collection numbers so many charming models that to most women it would seem worth while to get them even to lay aside for next season.

But to keep our own stocks entirely fresh and new we offer the collection at less than the cost of fabrics and workmanship.

Numbers of models at each of the following prices:—

Now $17.50, yesterday were $35 Now $22.50, yesterday were $45

Now $19., yesterday were $38 Now $25., yesterday were $50

Now $21., yesterday were $42 Now $32.50, yesterday were $65

Serge, silk, brocades and silk and wool fabrics, in black and colors. Nearly all sizes.

This Co-operative plan of buying a piano gives you a chance to "BACK OUT". You can get your money back

WE HAVE already told you of the merit of these pianos. To this our President, Mr. MacLachlan, has added his personal statement as to their value. And on Monday we told in fullest manner of the ironclad five year guarantee which is one of the strong protective features of this sale.

But all these things interest you only in case you keep the piano longer than one year. Today we tell you that within thirty days from the day you purchase your piano you can "BACK OUT." In other words—you can get your money back. You need not keep the piano if you don't wish—even after you have had it delivered to your home.

You have one whole month from the day you get your piano to keep it in your home and give it a thorough trial.

If the piano is unsatisfactory; if you are dissatisfied for any reason, or, if you merely want to "back out" of the proposition, you can have your money back. There will be no questions asked. No quibbling or haggling. No trying to get you to take some other instrument instead—but simply go to the cashier and get your money back—and tell him to send and get the piano.

This is the supreme test of our confidence in this piano.

"He who whispers," etc.

In Minneapolis the largest men's clothing in the city prints a small line at the bottom of his ad—"your money back." He is a good advertiser—frequently running half and even whole page advertisements—with this exception: He invariably runs this—one of the most important lines in his whole ad—in what is known as unparallel type, like this:

"Your Money Back."

Now with us—We Scream it out. We megaphone it—

"You can get your money back." This big, open hand, showering money back, is intended to also picture to your mind that your money will be given back just as freely as it was taken, if for any reason, within a thirty days' trial, you want it back.

We know the value of these pianos. We know their merits. We not only know how they will please for thirty days, but we know that they will retain their qualities for ten, twelve and fifteen years, and we—as well as the manufacturers—who are associated with us in this sale—consider that the offer to refund your money is the best evidence on our part of the faith we have in our proposition.

This plan applies to PLAYER-PIANOS exactly as it does to pianos

Three Hundred player-pianos will also be sold on this co-operative plan.

The usual price of these player-pianos is five hundred and fifty dollars each.

The co-operative price will be three hundred and ninety-five dollars, with NO INTEREST to be added.

The player-piano will also be delivered immediately upon the payment of five dollars.

The payments will be two dollars a week—giving you one hundred and ninety-five weeks' time in which to make your payments—the same as on the piano. The same unconditional guarantee that is given on the piano is given on the player-piano.

You can also get your money back at any time within thirty days.

You get the same privilege of exchanging within a year as that given with the piano.

All of the unpaid balances will be voluntarily cancelled in event of death.

Also, a player-piano bench and nine rolls of music (your own selection) are included without extra charge.

An arrangement will be made with each purchaser whereby new player rolls can be procured at a cost of only five cents a roll.

These player-pianos are standard 88-note players; that is, they play every note on the piano when the music roll is in motion. These player-pianos have an automatic shutter, which compels the music to play perfectly. Most player-pianos sold at from two hundred to two hundred and fifty dollars more than these will not play perfectly. These player-pianos have lead tubing. Most player-pianos have rubber tubing. The life of rubber is one year—at most. Lead lasts forever. It cannot wear out and the tubing in these player-pianos is so placed it cannot be broken.

All of the features of the co-operative plan are carried out in offering the player-pianos, with the single exception that the terms on the player-piano are two dollars a week instead of—as on the piano—one dollar and twenty-five cents a week.

During this sale internal player-piano recitals will be given every afternoon from 3 to 4:30 o'clock, to which you are cordially invited.

A column giving the whole proposition in brief paragraphs.

First. You get a piano which is worth and sells regularly at three hundred and fifty dollars for two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents, saving you at the outset one hundred and one dollar and twenty-five cents.

Second. When you finish paying for your piano, if bought in the usual way, you still owe from twenty-five to thirty-five dollars interest. Through this co-operative plan, when you have paid your two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents you have finished paying. There are no further payments to be made, either on account of interest or for any other reason.

Third. Instead of paying twenty to twenty-five dollars as a first payment and ten, twelve or fifteen dollars a month, as you will in a regular way, during this co-operative sale you pay but five dollars to join in this associate movement and then but one dollar and twenty-five cents a week.

Fourth. You get the strongest guarantee ever put on a piano; a joint guarantee signed by the manufacturers—the Newton Piano Company—and ourselves, giving you protection for five years that is as safe as a Government bond.

Fifth. You get the privilege of returning your piano at the end of a thirty days' trial and getting your money back.

Sixth. Within one year from the day you get your piano, through this co-operative plan, you may exchange it for any reason whatsoever, without so much as a penny's loss.

Seventh. All payments remaining unpaid are voluntarily cancelled in event of your death—thus leaving the piano free of encumbrance to your family.

Eighth. You get through this co-operative plan an opportunity to earn cash dividends for each and every week's time the life of the co-operative agreement of one hundred and ninety-five weeks is shortened. Through this privilege it is possible for you to earn cash dividends amounting in all to twenty-nine dollars and twenty-five cents.

Ninth. You are given opportunity to secure others to co-operate in this plan. This still further reduces the cost of your instrument.

Tenth. Under this plan, two tunings, a piano stool to match the piano, a late style scarf and delivery within one hundred and fifty miles of New York are included without adding any further expense to the two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents.

Cut this coupon off, and mail to-night.
